Assailant Of Local Man Is Jailed For 6 Months By Smith

Doctors Fight for Sight Of Wilmer Tong After Fracas Sunday

John W. Kelley, 32, transient, who struck and severely injured Wilmer Tong, 25, well known Truckee man in a local restaurant Sunday, was sentenced to serve six months in the county jail or pay a $500 fine when he appeared before Justice of the Peace C. E. Smith.

Tong this week was in a Reno hospital where doctors were fighting to save the sight of one eye, which was badly injured when Kelley struck him in the face after Tong refused to serve him a meal without payment.

According to witnesses, Kelley, went into the restaurant and asked Tong to give him a meal on credit. Tong informed him that he was not the owner and did not have the authority to extend credit. When Kelley argued the matter, Tong went into the kitchen and remarked to the cook:

"It's funny these people always have plenty of money to buy liquor but can't buy food."

Kelley evidently heard the remark and went into the kitchen and without warning, struck Tong in the face with his fist, knocking the local man down. He suffered a broken nose and heavy blood clots about the eyes.

Kelley then attempted to render assistance and apparently was regretful over his act. Tong was rushed to Dr. J. H. Bernard and Deputy Sheriff N. F. Dolley took Kelley into custody.

Officers said Kelley had been drinking.

SCRAP TO HELP WIN THE SCRAP

Having long recognized the potentialities of the scrap pile, Southern Pacific is equipped to play a leading part in the national drive to reclaim materials vital to the war effort. From miscellaneous scrap collected from all over the railroad, the company is now salvaging metal and many other materials for reclamation and re-use. Photo shows metal scrap being unloaded at the railroad's Sacramento shops, where thousands of tons are reclaimed yearly.

There seems to be a new crop of panhandlers working this spring. During the past week we have noticed not less than three women—one with a year-old baby over her shoulder, another well along in years and a third of the brazen type—going from store to store begging. In one case, at least, the woman was accompanied by a male companion, who waited patiently while his partner worked the business section. What with all the work springing up over the country, it becomes more and more difficult for men to make a hard luck story stick, so it is evident that the women may be taking over the unhappy job of providing with someone else's hard earned cash.

What with our connection with the chamber of commerce, there are times when we are right glad to have a censorship on the weather.

With candidates popping up in the biennial contests for public favor, war news and national items must for a time share the spotlight with political stories and we believe that equal attention should be given to these important matters. We are going to be privileged to vote for state, county and local officers on August 25 and we should, so far as possible, familiarize ourselves with the men seeking the offices and be prepared to equip ourselves with the right men for the ensuing term. Make it a point to choose wisely and vote.

Kings Beach Couple Have House Warming Saturd'y

More than 100 friends gathered on Saturday evening at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. John Galleran at Kings Beach to wish them happiness in their fine new home. Guests were from all around the lake region, including Kings Beach, Tahoe City and Truckee.

The Galleran's proved themselves most genial hosts and the guests thoroughly enjoyed an evening of merry-making. Refreshments were served during the evening and friends inspected the new house.

MERCHANTS HERE TO HAVE ORGANIZATION UNDER CREDIT LAW

For the purpose of establishing a credit standard in compliance with new laws set up by the government, a meeting of all business people in this district will be called in the near future, to arrive at a satisfactory agreement.

Thirty-five businessmen and women last night attended a meeting held at Capitol Hall following the regular meeting of the Lions Club and heard James Santini and Dewey Holmes of the Nevada Credit Rating Bureau explain the various phases of the law and answer questions on the subject. Those present agreed upon the necessity of establishing a definite credit policy in this district to keep within the law and avoid complications and asked that some sort of organization be formed.

The chamber of commerce will attempt to notify all business establishments in the region when the meeting will be held but as a chamber will have no part in its formation or operation, the being the obligation of the business people themselves.

The laws apply to all concerns doing credit business and the local organization must have the complete

N. F. Dolley Seeks Constable Job Here In August Election

Well Known Peace Officer Seeks Voters' Favor In Ballotting

N. F. (Tom) Dolley, for the past nine years associated with the Nevada County sheriff's office in capacity of deputy, this week announced he would be a candidate for election to the office of constable of Meadow Lake Township in the primary election, August 25.

In making the announcement Dolley called attention to the fact that his work as deputy sheriff has given him a thorough understanding of law enforcement and while it is true that the duties of constable do not necessarily demand criminal law enforcement, it is generally understood and expected that the constable should assume this work.

This is practically the case in the eastern end of Nevada County where no provision is made for any county officer aside from the constable. Dolley's record as an enforcement officer is widely known and his manner in handling criminal cases has gained him a reputation over all of northern California and western Nevada.

Some of the most important criminals in recent years have been apprehended by Dolley and despite the fact that he has served without pay from the sheriff's office, his services have always been available day or night to local residents and outside authorities who frequently call upon him. He is fearless and fully capable of handling the most difficult cases.

He uses his own time and money to enforce laws and in return, during the past eight years he has received a pittance from the county which comes far from paying for the services rendered.

The candidate has taken an active part in community and civic affairs and has served as fire chief, president of the grammar school board of trustees, and has held other positions of trust in the township. He is married, has two children and is a local taxpayer.

"I am willing to base my candidacy upon my past record as an officer," Dolley declared.

Titus Is Candidate In Race For Constable In Local Township

Candidate Stands on Record Of 27 Years As Deputy

Frank A. Titus, for the past 27 years deputy constable and night-watchman in Truckee and a resident here since 1890, when he arrived as a boy, this week announced he will be a candidate for the office of constable of Meadow Lake Township.

His work as peace officer for the past 27 years has well qualified him for the position which he seeks. During that time he has had to deal with some of the hardest criminals the west has known and his handling of these cases is typical of the work required as an officer in this township.

Situated on the main line of the transcontinental highway and railroad, this region is naturally a funnel through which criminals of all types must pass. It requires a man familiar with crime and law enforcement to cope with the situation and Titus, during his incumbency as night policeman, has proven time and again his ability as a competent, efficient and thorough enforcement official. Working at night offers the best proof of a man's ability in dealing with crime and criminals.

The few robberies and other crimes committed here during recent years stand as mute evidence of the thoroughness of the work which has been done.

Aside from being an able officer, Titus is widely known in civic and fraternal circles and is widely and favorably known over the entire region of the state where he has a legion of friends.

"I find that I must give up night work after 27 years," Titus said, "and I feel that I am qualified and capable of administering the duties of constable and I am asking support of the basis of my past service and ability. If elected I will serve faithfully and without fear or favor."

KINGS BEACH TO GET FIRE WARDEN FROM U. S. FOREST SERVICE

TAHOE CITY, May 28—Close to 60 men attended the Rangers meeting in community hall Tuesday night. Capt. Bill LaMarr presided with District Ranger H. I. Snider of Truckee speaking on fire prevention.

Snider said the United States forest service had approved the appointment of a fire warden in the Kings Beach district, a protection long sought by the North Tahoe community. A married couple will be employed at a salary of $115, the woman to be paid for answering the telephone when her husband is absent on duty.

Another meeting last night at the Kings Beach school determined a suitable building for the pickup truck with pumper and tank to be stationed there, and a residence for the warden. Service will inaugurate on June 1.

The next Ranger meeting on June 9 will be held an hour early in order that Snider will have added time to administer special fire fighting instruction to the group. All are asked to be present.

COUNTY POLITICS

Grass Valley Mortician Is Candidate for Coroner

With capable and satisfactory experience as deputy coroner of Nevada county for 6½ years and possessing a background of 20 years in the mortuary business and funeral directing profession, Alvah (Hoop) Hooper, qualified Grass Valley businessman has today formally announced his candidacy for the office of coroner to be filled by the voters of the county at the August 25 primary election. Hooper's all-around knowledge of the duties of the coroner's office, his many years of mortuary contacts and understanding and his associations with people in the industry as well as holding the confidence of the people at large, eminently prepares him for one of the most important offices of county self government.

Disciple of Fair Play

The coroner nominee realizes that virtually all of the duties of the office are prescribed by legislative statute and in some instances governed by county tradition and custom, but in the administration of those duties he promises, if elected (Continued on Page 4)

Joe Henwood Announces For County Tax Collector

Joe Henwood, one of Nevada county's best known "sons", a resident for almost all his life except when in the service of his country, recently became the first announced candidate for county treasurer and tax collector at the coming August 25 county non-partisan election.

With his announcement, Henwood became the first active candidate for the job.

The tax collector and treasurer candidate, who was born and reared in Grass Valley and served in the first World War, is no stranger to either the older residents of the county or yet the newer citizens.

Former Deputy Candidate For Sheriff In Primary

Fred E. Williford, Grass Valley resident and widely known former peace officer, miner, farmer and mechanic, announces in another column of this issue his candidacy for sheriff of Nevada County at the primary election to be held August 25, 1942.

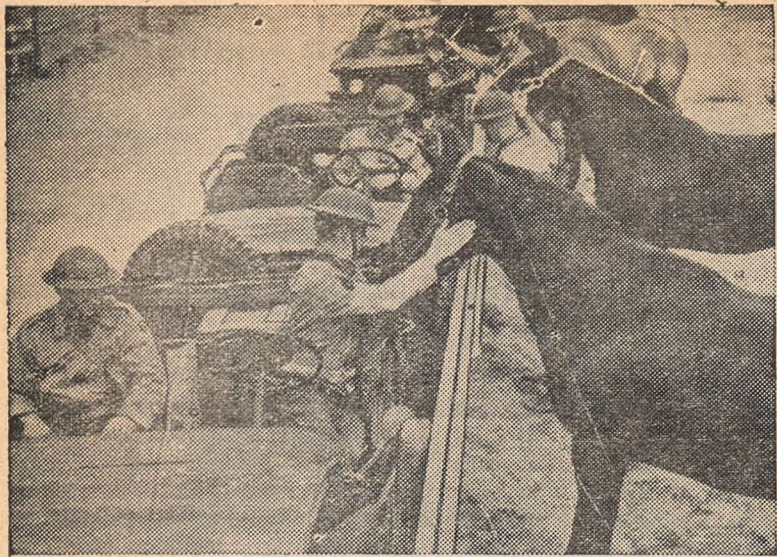

Williford bases his candidacy on experience as a police officer and deputy sheriff, an intimate knowledge of police methods and a desire to serve the public.

Substance of Policy

In a statement last night he said he would give the people an efficient, fearless and impartial administration, with the letter and the spirit of the law enforced without favor or prejudice.

The candidate for sheriff was born in Lincoln, Placer county, and attended the elementary schools of that county, later moving to Grass Valley with his parents and attending and graduating from high school in 1923. He was prominent in athletics and student affairs of the (Continued on Page 4)

OUR WAR GOVERNOR

There is only one issue in the 1942 campaign for Governor of California; that is the war issue.

There may be—in fact, there undoubtedly will be—heated debate over who should be the next Governor, for after all, this is the land of the free and the home of the brave, where each man calls his shots as he sees them.

But the issue, regardless of faction, or regardless of party, is clear-cut and inescapable—the issue is simply this: "Who is the best man to serve California as a war Governor?"

As a matter of fact (and this has shocked the politicians), the great mass of voters—the people who decide such things—don't seem to give a hang this year about party affiliations; they're simply looking for A MAN to lead them.

What, then, is the average, war-conscious Californian's conception of a war-time leader? What is the portrait he may carry in his mind, as election nears, of an ideal war Governor?

Mind you, this isn't a fellow he hopes to wangle a job from for some ne'er-do-well relative after election. This isn't just a chap who promised to open fishing season two weeks earlier. This isn't just The White Hope of the party.

This is the man to who the average voter would prefer to entrust the safety of his family, the security of his property and the welfare of his state—if bombs should fall! This is the man (and he voter has begun to realize it) who would have the power to declare martial law in every section of California. This is the man who must build an adequate state defense, if one is built. This is the man, too, who will probably be Governor during the critical period post-war reconstruction period; this is the man who will have to help devise a plan to find jobs for tens of thousands of soldiers, as they return to civilian life. This is the man who will have tremendous power, for good or evil, over his state and his fellow-men during the most critical time in California's entire history.

What does the average voter want. Well, that is a question which you, Mr. and Mrs. Average Voter, must answer. No one can answer it for you. But if you told the truth (as we suspect you did) in the straw ballots and polls thus far conducted, you believe with the President of the United States that politics should be adjourned for the duration. You want a Governor who will do that; who will put winning the war ahead of every other consideration. You want the State Guard muddled straightened out pronto; you want the kinks taken out of Civilian Defense. You want A REAL WAR GOVERNOR!

That's about the way you feel at this moment, if the polls tell the truth, and you're measuring Earl Warren. Senator Robert Kenny and Culbert L. Olson by that yardstick. You may not have decided on The Man, but you'll know him when you find him; you're looking for a top-notch top-sergeant to take command here on the home front!

Memorial Day

MY PLACE IN THE SUN

by DOUG BARKETT

"Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet, Lest we forget—lest we forget!"

Of all the poetry of the English language that I have read in the past one score and two years, I believe that these two from Kipling's Recessional carry the fullest meaning of any in the language. On next Memorial Day—May 30—every American should repeat them with as an earnest prayer. Memorial Day is supposed to be a day for honoring our valiant dead but in a larger sense it should also mark a day for honoring our valiant living. It is easy to remember today those who are offering their lives that we might live. But when our hour of trial is past and we are one again secure in a victorious peace, will today's heroes be tomorrow's forgotten men? Will we remember the sacrifices of the Addison Nelsons, the Buddy Zorichs, the Waters boys and the millions like them? We forgot it before—will we do it again? "Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet—lest we forget, lest we forget."

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The 75-millimeter gun is a divisional weapon used by the Artillery as an anti-tank gun. It has been replaced to some extent by the more modern "105", known as the heaviest of divisional weapons. The 75-mm gun costs $12,000 and has been converted by our Ordnance into a "blaster" twice as efficient as in the first World War.

This gun gets maximum power for minimum weight and cost, and the American people are providing the finance through the purchase of War Bonds. If you do your share and invest 10 per cent of your income in War Bonds, adequate supply of this efficient gun can be assured our fighting forces. Buy War Bonds every pay day.

20 POUND MACKINAW TAKEN FROM TAHOE BY WOMAN; OTHERS MAKE GOOD CATCHES

TAHOE CITY, May 28—Mrs. Jack Malcolm, veteran Tahoe City angler, on Sunday nearly equalled the record recently set by Mrs. J. H. Vilk of San Francisco. Mrs. Malcolm took a 20-pound Mackinaw out of the lake while Mrs. Vilk's was a 21 pounder. On Thursday Fay Ellis of Oakland took the limit of trout from the lake, his performance having been duplicated several times already this season.

Miss Alice Soll of Pine Lodge accompanied J. E. Pomin of Idlewild on a recent fishing excursion on the lake and proved no mean fisherman by pulling a fine seven pound Mackinaw during the day.

James Wilson of Pomin's Lodge was an unlucky angler on Wednesday last, despite the fact that he caught some nice trout. On arriving back at the pier he sought to pick up a plug which lay in the bottom of the boat. The hook caught in the thumb of his left hand and no amount of manipulation could dislodge it. A trip to the office of Dr. J. H. Bernard at Truckee was necessary before it could be successfully removed. While not serious, it was a most painful accident.

Tahoe Summer Resident Is Arrested By Forest Officer

TAHOE CITY, May 28—H. C. Jacobs, who has a summer home in the Tahoe Pines district, was arrested by Fire Warden Charles Arment on Sunday for negligence in burning brush. He will be arraigned before Justice of the Peace Evelyn Bliss on Thursday next.

It was Jacobs' second offense, the first time resulting in only a warning.

The fire was reported out of control when a brisk wind rose and caused it to spread, on one being in attendance at the time as required by law, Arment said. Jacobs had a permit to burn.

Jacobs recently purchased the 12-acre tract adjoining the Bittencourt Tract in town and was engaged in clearing and cutting brush. The fire was confined to some 100 square feet in area, due to the prompt action of Arment and his assistant, Thorolf Arntzen.

A small fire was started on Friday last when a passing motorist presumably threw a lighted match or cigarette into a pile of telephone equipment stacked at the Tahoe Wye near town. Damage was slight.

Tahoe Schools • •

Elementary School
Visitors at the Tahoe Lake school last week were Mrs. Lu Siemon, superintendent of child welfare from Auburn, who was accompanied by Mrs. Ora Fay also of Auburn. They called to look into matters generally pertaining to child welfare.

Junior Red Cross activities this week for the youngsters include the project of working on Red Cross kits for the United States army and marine corps. Among articles which are incorporated into the kits, which are made of drab olive cotton fabric are envelopes and writing paper, soap, razor blades, chewing gum, a small book to read, buttons and sewing equipment and a waterproofed match case.

Members of the social studies unit this week are completing their map of exploration of the county of Placer. Examinations of this project are scheduled within a day or two. A highlight of the week for the children was their interviewing of Mrs. Siemon who answered the numerous questions pertaining to the county seat and her work in general.

A most welcome visitor at the school last week was an old-time resident of Tahoe, Freg Cowell, who in fact, lived with his family almost across from the school for many years. He was caught on Midway Island when the Japs visited there and underwent shell fire of the enemy. Although the audience was bursting with numerous questions regarding the attack, he was especially careful not to give out any information forbidden by the government. His talk dealt with the elements of the island, the wild life what there is of it, and life in general as lived there. His story was intensely interesting. The Cowells who now have a home in Stockton, had just returned from a visit with their son, Robert, and family who live at Lake Almanor where he is employed by the Fish and Game commission. Cowell will soon return to work with the construction company and will be in his way once more to some distant, undisclosed destination to build anew for Uncle Sam's armed forces.

Mrs. Barney Morrow, wife of the former Tahoe Lake school custodian and now a resident of Alameda, was a visitor at the school last week. Her husband is now back in the navy service and is chief gunner on a torpedo boat. The Morrows may return to Tahoe in the near future to occupy her mother's home near the lumber yard, the Bickford house. Morrow could visit them during furloughs.

High School
Miss Lois Reeves, former Tahoe student, is now attending Alameda high school. A number of Tahoeites attended the graduation exercises in Auburn last Friday during which two Tahoe students received their diplomas.

Edna Wheat and Robert Wathen. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wheat, Miss Annie Gallenani of Kings Beach, and Rex Tollefson and Dick Carnell of Tahoe City. The youngsters reported having a grand time, being present for the special dinner given at the college and at the dance that followed.

An epidemic of colds and sore throats seems to be sweeping the Tahoe district, a number of pupils being absent on Monday morning from classes due to it. Among those afflicted were Howard Carnell, Billy Jean Gibson, Betty Woodruff and Joyce and Jackson Palmer.

Jay Schumacher, high school teacher, made a motor trip to Auburn on Friday last to consult with the science department of Placer Union High School regarding the securing of equipment for the Tahoe branch of the school. Arrangements have been made whereby the Tahoe school, beginning next fall, will be prepared to give a full high school course in mathematics and sciences, a course not now available because of lack of equipment. The Tahoe school will start their course six weeks in advance of the Auburn branch and when completed will return the equipment to Auburn, thereby eliminating the necessity of purchasing another set. Mathematics, science and physics are especially emphasized in recent government bulletins relative to young men seeking service in the armed forces, and these will now soon be available to local boys.

An Friday night, May 29, a special high school dinner will be served in the local school auditorium for seniors, incoming freshmen and teachers. A dance will be held following the dinner, which may be attended by parents and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Palmer of Meeks Bay Vista entertained at a weenie bake for a group of youngsters on Sunday following their successful fishing excursion. Attending were Joyce and Bud Palmer, Dick Carnell, Mary Jane Soll and Rex Tollefson. Carnell brought home two nice ten inch trout and Tollefson caught several nice rainbows.

Since that time he has been employed at the Spring Hill Mine.

"I consider myself as a fingerprint expert as applied to that profession today and believe through past experience as a law officer I am well qualified for the position of sheriff of Nevada county," Williford stated.
If elected, the candidate promises full cooperation with city, state, federal and military law enforcement authorities.

Working with the American Legion Americanization program, he has conducted classes each year, averaging better than 30 members to a class. It is certain that between 300 and 400 new citizens received their tutelage from Henwood and able to pass the examinations of the United States Naturalization Service.
Helped in Education
Henwood has long been interested in the progress and able functioning of Grass Valley's educational system and several years ago became a member of the Grass Valley school board, assisting in the institution of advantages and opportunities which have eased the means of acquiring an education by the students of areas some distance from the community.
Between now and August 25, the candidate will make an active campaign throughout the county. He will meet and talk with all residents, making known his platform and his progressive views on county government.

Hooper for Coroner

(1) to give the people of Nevada county an economical management of the affairs of the office, keeping the business of the office in a modern and up-to-date manner without sacrifice of prestige and yet holding the budget within an amount reasonable for the county and no hardship on the taxpayer; (2) to conduct the office in an entirely fair, impartial manner, treating each citizen on a plane of American equality and understanding and (3) conducting office relations in an attitude of courtesy, friendliness and a willingness to go beyond what is normally expected to solve problems, turn despair to hope and strive for complete satisfaction.
Hooper is a native of Grass Valley and has spent much of his life there. He was affiliated with the former well known firm of Gill-Miller in the mortuary business for seven years, 1906-1913, later moving to the San Francisco bay region where he accepted other employment. However he kept his license valid and assisted on occasion at the parlors of Dan Donovan.
Returned in 1929
Upon his return to Grass Valley in 1929, he was again active in the mortuary and funeral directing business with one firm for 10½ years and served 6½ years as deputy Nevada county coroner.
For the past two years, the nominee has been the senior member of the firm which bears his name, the Hooper-Weaver Mortuary, Inc.
Hooper's community activities have been widespread. In both service, patriotic and fraternal groups he has been a willing and energetic participant.
At the present time he is finance officer and member of the building committee of the American Legion and has held other offices in the past. He is an active member of the Grass Valley Fire Department; holds membership in the Odd Fellows and Native Sons fraternal organizations and is affiliated with the Grass Valley Rotary Club.
Hooper is the recently elected third vice president of the Nevada-Sierra Peace Officers Association and is active in the deliberation of this agency.
Hooper will make an active campaign throughout the county between now and the election day and invites the discussions of problems and questions by the voting public in connection with his office aspirations and administrative goals.

BIRTH RATE RECORD

California's birth rate during 1941 broke all state records with a total of 125,050 births.

A Statement

Despite my greatest endeavors to spike a rumor circulated throughout the county apparently there is an insistent report that my campaign for Sheriff of Nevada County is definitely attached to the sponsorship of various groups and individuals. This—emphatically—is not so. As explained in my announcement a few weeks ago I am running on an entirely 'single handed' platform, without benefit of financial assistance or solicited aid from any one. Those who are so generously working in my behalf are doing so of their own accord, and their efforts are greatly appreciated.

There is also a persistent rumor that, in the event of my election, I have already named deputies to serve the office of Sheriff. This, too, is entirely in error. I have made no such decision, nor will I, pending return of the count of the election ballots on August 25.

I again repeat the policy of my program—a clean cut administration with only the best interest of Nevada County taxpayers at heart—and obligations to no one.

FAILURE MAY LEAD TO SUCCESS
Have you ever worked desperately to accomplish something, and then, suddenly, and unexpectedly, have it turn out an aid after all? I'll give you an example:

A dentist in Yonkers, N. Y., wanted to become a writer. He moved to a small town in Pennsylvania and began. His money ran out, and they lived on his wife's money. In five years he sold only four or five short articles. You will recognize the dentist's name—Zane Grey. He plunged into a novel about a distant relative of his, Betty Zane, whose family name had been given him. (Zanesville, Ohio, was named for the family.) The novel was based on a deed of courage the girl had performed at old Fort Henry when it had been besieged by Indians.

At last the book was done. He offered it to a publisher. It came back with a printed rejection slip. He sent it out again and again. It was refused by every publishing house in New York. But he still believed in it and borrowed money to have it printed at his own expense. It failed. Seemingly.

One day he happened to meet "Buffalo" Jones, one of the great characters of the West, and among the last plainsmen, and one who had done something no one else had done—lassoed buffalo. The newspapers panned the idea. What! Lasso buffaloes! Ridiculous. The old plainsman was sick in his hotel and had no one to cheer him up. Grey helped take care of him. "Buffalo" Jones was hurt most of all by the disbelief of the editors, for his pride had been touched.

Grey had an idea. "Take me out West with you and let men write up your exploits," he said.

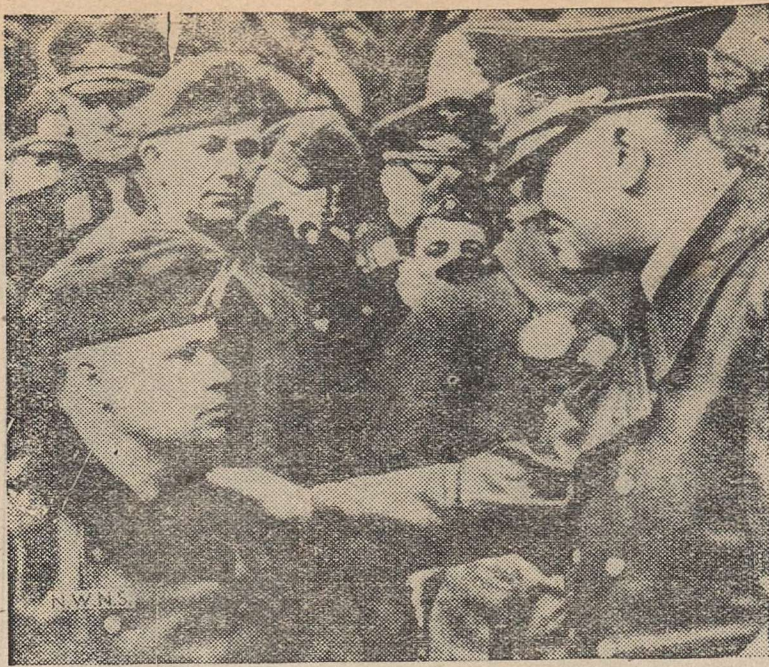

"Can you write?"

"Yes," said Grey, and gave him a copy of his novel. For three days he did not have the courage to return. When he did "Buffalo" Jones seized his hand and shook it heartily. "The book is fine. I'm going to take you West." On the trip Grey got background and material for his first novel of the West. Novel after novel flowed from his pen. After that he became the greatest money earner on many living novelists.

The book he thought was a failure suddenly became the means of opening a door which made him wealthy and world-famous.

Nothing into which you have put your best efforts ever is wholly a failure. Some day, when you least expect it, it may prove the factor that will be your greatest help.

'Get In the Fight, They Can't Hurt Us!'

This photo which arrived in New York from London by clipper, shows Adolf Hitler as he tried to cheer up wounded Nazi soldiers. There can be no doubt that the Nazis needed some sort of encouragement to keep them fighting and to bolster their morale for the much talked of "spring offensive," after the many reverses they had experienced in Russia during the winter months. Evidently Der Fuehrer believed a visit from him would do the trick.

Ed Barrow, president of the Yankees, things experts are over-optimistic when they pick New York to walk away with the American League pennant. "I think the Yankees will win," he says, "but it's going to be the tightest race in years."

Soliers at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., picked bowling as their first choice in sports with 5,571 votes. Baseball was second, 3,819; dancing third, 3,079; basketball, fourth; swimming, fifth; and billiards, sixth.... Because of wartime traffic volume American League teams this year will travel at least part of the time from Detroit to Cleveland and vice versa by boat.... The American League fines any player or manager $500 if he permits his picture in uniform to be used in connection with any medical, tobacco or alcoholic advertising.

The rebuilt golf ball was put to a test during the recent Masters tournament by Gene Sarazen and Sammy Snead. The discovered the ball will do practically anything the new 1942 ball will do, although laboratory tests had indicated that the rebuilt ball would be 10 per cent less efficient.... The National Boxing association's quarterly rankings list Billy Conn and Bob Pastor as the "logical contenders" for the heavyweight championship.

According to a national poll, 66 per cent of the public thinks that professional sports should be continued during the war.... Many golf experts consider Byron Nelson, winner of the 1942 Masters, the greatest player of the game today; a player who rapidly is taking a place alongside Harry Vardon, Bobby Jones and Walter Hagen.

Carriage 'Funeral'

"Old r-a-a-a-g-s, old iron!" Going all out in their salvage drive, Melaine, 10, and Wilfred Kozlowski, 12, of Chicago, were among the JVA group doing their bit to help smash the Axis. The youngsters collected old scrap and staged a colorful parade about the neighborhood.

WAR RESTRICTIONS SEEN IN STATE GAS SALES SLUMP

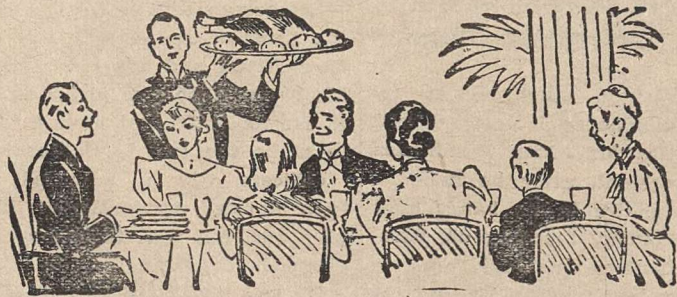

SACRAMENTO, May 23 —(UP)—Evidence that war-brought restrictions have reduced use of motor vehicles by Californians was given today by R. E. Collins, chairman of the state board of equalization, when he reported a 16.11 per cent decrease in taxable gasoline sales in April, this year, from April last year.

The April drop was the first substantial decrease in gasoline tax revenue in more than three years. Only a slight loss was reported in March.

Motor vehicle fuel taxes for the first four months of this year totalled $18,964,996.70. Tax income from this source last year at this time was $19,311,135.

San Francisco's city hall has a dome 13 1/2 feet higher than the U. S. Capitol in Washington.

Rotary Club Enjoys Ladies Night At Soda Springs

On Saturday evening, May 23, the Truckee-Tahoe Rotary Club held their ladies night at Soda Springs. Fifty-six people attended and a very nice evening was enjoyed by all.

The squash dinner served by the hotel was delicious and the entertainment went right along with it. Bobbie Robertson, an Oaklander, entertained the visitors and kept them in stitches with his Scotch stories, songs, jokes and poetry. Staff Sgt. Ed Groleau rendered several songs and led some singing. Lloyd Greene, president-elect of the club, complimented the club on its fourth anniversary.

After the dinner was completed, dancing held sway for the ensuing three hours.

By those who attended, it was pronounced as one of the best ladies nights ever held by the Rotary club. Past President Theodore Schleuter was chairman of the evening.

Two Auto Accidents At Norden Blamed on Road

Two accidents occurring within 10 minutes of one another at the same spot on Monday, were blamed by state highway patrolmen upon the slippery condition of the road about a half mile east of Norden.

The first, at 10:30 p.m., involved a sedan driven by E. P. Bemis, San Francisco union official. He suffered a sprained wrist while damage to the car was estimated at $150. Patrolman John Stinton investigated.

The second happened at 10:40 p.m. when Willie C. Nolan of Sterlington, La., lost control of his car. The driver sustained no injuries but damage to the car was approximated at $300 by Patrolman Grover Todd who investigated.

Car Stolen In Connecticut Is Recovered by Officers

After touring the country all the way from Connecticut in an allegedly stolen car for which officers had been seeking since May 3, Walter Lamoureaux, 18, who gave his address as West Hartford, Conn., was apprehended by officers of the state highway patrol here Saturday morning and held on a charge of violating the Dyer Act.

Lamoureaux said that when he took the machine, he thought it belonged to a friend and when he found out his mistake, he was afraid to return it. He had sufficient money, he said, to make the trip to California.

Officers said he admitted having been arrested previously for the theft of a car, but that the charges were dropped.

He was taken to Nevada City to await disposition of his case by federal authorities.
